

Task description for the second part of the module examination in module 5

1 project work (methodological design of employment-oriented vocational training and further education – 30 hrs)

Task: Explain the theoretical approach of a selected complex teaching method and develop an example of the application of this method in the employment-oriented vocational training!

Scope of the work: 10-15 pages

The project is to realize as a single work or partner work.

The work must be written in English.

Date of submission of work: January 10, 2022.

The work must be submitted via e-mail: steffen.kersten@tu-dresden.de

- 1) Choose a complex teaching method!
- 2) Explain the theoretical approach of that method!
  - a. characteristics
  - b. learning potentials
  - c. conditions
  - d. teacher's and learner's role
  - e. sequence of the method
  - f. advantages/disadvantage
- 3) Develop an example of the application of this method in the employment-oriented vocational training!
  - a. learning aims/learning content
  - b. relation to the curriculum
  - c. initial situation / given problem
  - d. expected structure of the learning activities
  - e. scheduling
  - f. instruments of support from the teacher/media use
  - g. Criteria and methods of evaluation